
MY TURN BEGINS TODAY

I can see the sun is shining
Somewhere in tomorrow
There's a place
For me
Somehow

I can hear the wind defining,
Whispering the answer
To me now
And I avow
And need to say

My turn begins today
Its time to fly and find a better way
I know I have to say goodbye to yesterday
Watch me fly
It's gonna be my way
It's time
My turn begins today

The road has gotten long, it's taken
Time to find what I've been Searching for
And now
I know

A place where I belong that I call
Mine....although I've made it
There's much more
Open the door
It's gonna be my way

My turn begins today
Its time to fly and find a better way
I know I have to say goodbye to yesterday
Watch me fly
It's gonna be my way
It's time
My turn begins today

My turn begins today
Its time to fly and find a better way
I know I have to say goodbye to yesterday
It's time to fly
It's gonna be my way
This time, it's gonna be my way
My turn begins today
